DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 17-25 and 28-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Mastro et al.

Mastro et al discloses all the featured elements of the instant invention, note specifically fuel injector with a coating layer 26. Claim 22 is considered a product-by-process claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 31-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mastro.

Mastro discloses all the featured elements of the instant invention, except for the use of a canula and aftertreatment of the valve needle. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the canula and the aftertreatments in the apparatus of Mastro since such method steps are well known in the coating art and any one of these methods could be used in the method of making the fuel injector of Mastro.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 26 and 27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Fleming et al, Souma et al, Hogan et al and Potter et al show fuel injectors with various types of coatings.
